Development of e-Government Standard Framework through Open Innovation Strategy

Gu-Il Kang*, Sung-Jun Mun*, Young-II Kwon*

*Department of Information Resource Service, NIA(National Information Society Agency), Seoul, Korea guilkang@nia.or.kr, munsj@nia.or.kr, kyi@nia.or.kr

Abstract— e-Government Standard Framework aims to provide a standardized set of software tools for developing and running e-Government applications in order to improve the efficiency of ICT investment and the quality of e-Government services. It focuses on improving the reusability and interoperability of e-Government applications by setting a standard framework for developing software of e-Government.

Keywords— e-Government, Standard Framework, eGovframe, Open Innovation, Open Source, Common Component