Development of Indicator with Interactive Visualization System

Masaaki Ida

National Institution for Academic Degrees and Quality Enhancement of Higher Education

Kodaira, Tokyo, Japan

ida@niad.ac.jp

Abstract— In this paper we examine the financial indicators and related institutional data of Japanese higher education institutions, and describe the method and its support system of generating new indicator with interactive visualization system.

Keyword— financial indicator, correlation, principal component analysis, clustering, visualization, business intelligence data analysis, canonical correlation analysis, data variation, financial data, higher education institution

Author Masaaki Ida was received the B.E., M.E, and Ph.D. degrees, all in engineering, from Kyoto University, Kyoto, Japan. He is currently a professor of National institution for Academic Degrees and Quality Enhancement of Higher Education of Japan. His current research interests are in computer science, especially in advanced database and communication technology in higher education.