Authors Biography

Md. Tofail Ahmed (Member, IEEE) received B.Sc. and M.Sc. Engineering degrees in Information ¥& Communication Engineering from the University of Rajshahi, Bangladesh, in 2016 and 2018, respectively. He was awarded the Dean's List Award for outstanding results in his B.Sc. and M.Sc. Engineering level from the Faculty of Engineering, University of Rajshahi, Bangladesh. He is an Assistant Professor in the Information and Communication Engineering Department at Pabna University of Science and Technology, Pabna-6600, Bangladesh. He is currently pursuing a Ph.D. in the field of cognitive radio networks at the Graduate School of Science and Engineering, Saitama University, Saitama, Japan. His research interests include advanced wireless communication, NOMA, spectrum sensing, cognitive radio, and machine learning.

Mousumi Haque (Member, IEEE) received B.Sc. and M.Sc. degrees in Applied Physics and Electronic Engineering from the University of Rajshahi, Bangladesh, in 2008 and 2009, respectively. In 2012, she joined the University of Rajshahi, Rajshahi, Bangladesh, as a faculty member, where she is currently serving as an Associate Professor in the Department of Information ¥& Communication Engineering. She received a Doctor of Engineering (Dr. Eng.) degree in Information and Computer Sciences from Saitama University, Japan, in 2019. She was a postdoctoral researcher at Saitama University, Japan, in the areas of spectrum sensing for cognitive radio systems in 2023. Her main research interests include advanced wireless communication systems, massive MIMO, multicarrier modulation (MCM) systems, cognitive radio, and signal detection and estimation.

Yosuke Sugiura (Member, IEEE) received B.E., M.E., and Ph.D. degrees from Osaka University, Osaka, Japan in 2009, 2011, and 2013, respectively. In 2013, he joined Tokyo University of Science, Tokyo, Japan. In 2015, he joined Saitama University, Saitama Japan, where he is currently an Assistant Professor. His research interests include digital signal processing, adaptive filter theory, and speech information processing.

Tetsuya Shimamura (Senior Member, IEEE) received B.Eng., M.Eng., and Ph.D. degrees in electrical engineering from Keio University, Yokohama, Japan, in 1986, 1988, and 1991, respectively. In 1991, he joined Saitama University, Saitama, Japan, as a faculty member, where he is currently a Professor. He was a Visiting Scholar with at Loughborough University, U.K., in 1995, and Queen's University Belfast, U.K., in 1996. He is the author and coauthor of six books. His research interests include digital signal processing and its applications to speech, image, and communications systems. He is a member of the organizing and program committees of various international conferences. He serves on the editorial boards of several international journals.
